Our Top Afternoon Teas in Coventry

Afternoon Tea is one of the nation's favourite treats. Whether you're out with friends or family, celebrating an anniversary or treating someone special, it's a great way to indulge. From afternoon treats at the historic Undercroft café in St Mary's Guildhall to Coombe Abbey's luxurious Gin Pot tippie, Coventry has an afternoon tea for everyone.

Coombe Abbey

Set in the beautiful surroundings of Coombe Abbey, the popular Abbot's Tea and Knight's Tea now sit alongside the luxurious Hendrick's Gin Pot Afternoon Tea. Served with G&T, The Hendrick's Gin Pot adds a twist to the traditional Abbot's Afternoon Tea. You're free to choose from Fever Tree, Naturally Light, Mediterranean and Elderflower Tonics.

Rising Café

Next door to the historic Coventry Cathedral, the international symbol for peace and reconciliation, this war-time themed café offers an afternoon tea with a difference. From American Sliders, complete with homemade fries and mini ice-cream sundae, to The Winston, featuring typically English flavours of roast beef, Yorkshire pudding and apple crumble, it's an afternoon tea with a twist with a mini tea for the children. The café is also a charity, with 100% of the profit going to improving the lives of those suffering with drug and alcohol addictions.
