Independents & arcades

Great Western Arcade

Home to a variety of independent retailers such as Loki Wine, Miss Macaroon, Projekt 21, and Goodlife Barbers, this picturesque arcade oozes

Victorian charm. Piccadilly Arcade

Located opposite New Street Station, Piccadilly Arcade is home to an eclectic mix of independent stores. Smithsonia Gifts is one of Birmingham's best-loved independent gift stores, while nearby Faculty Coffee prepares high-quality hot drinks and sells a range of coffee beans and equipment.

Stephenson Street and Pinfold Street The recently-refurbished Guildhall Building is home to a selection of independent retailers and coffee shops. Hush Hair and Beauty is one of Birmingham's leading contemporary hair

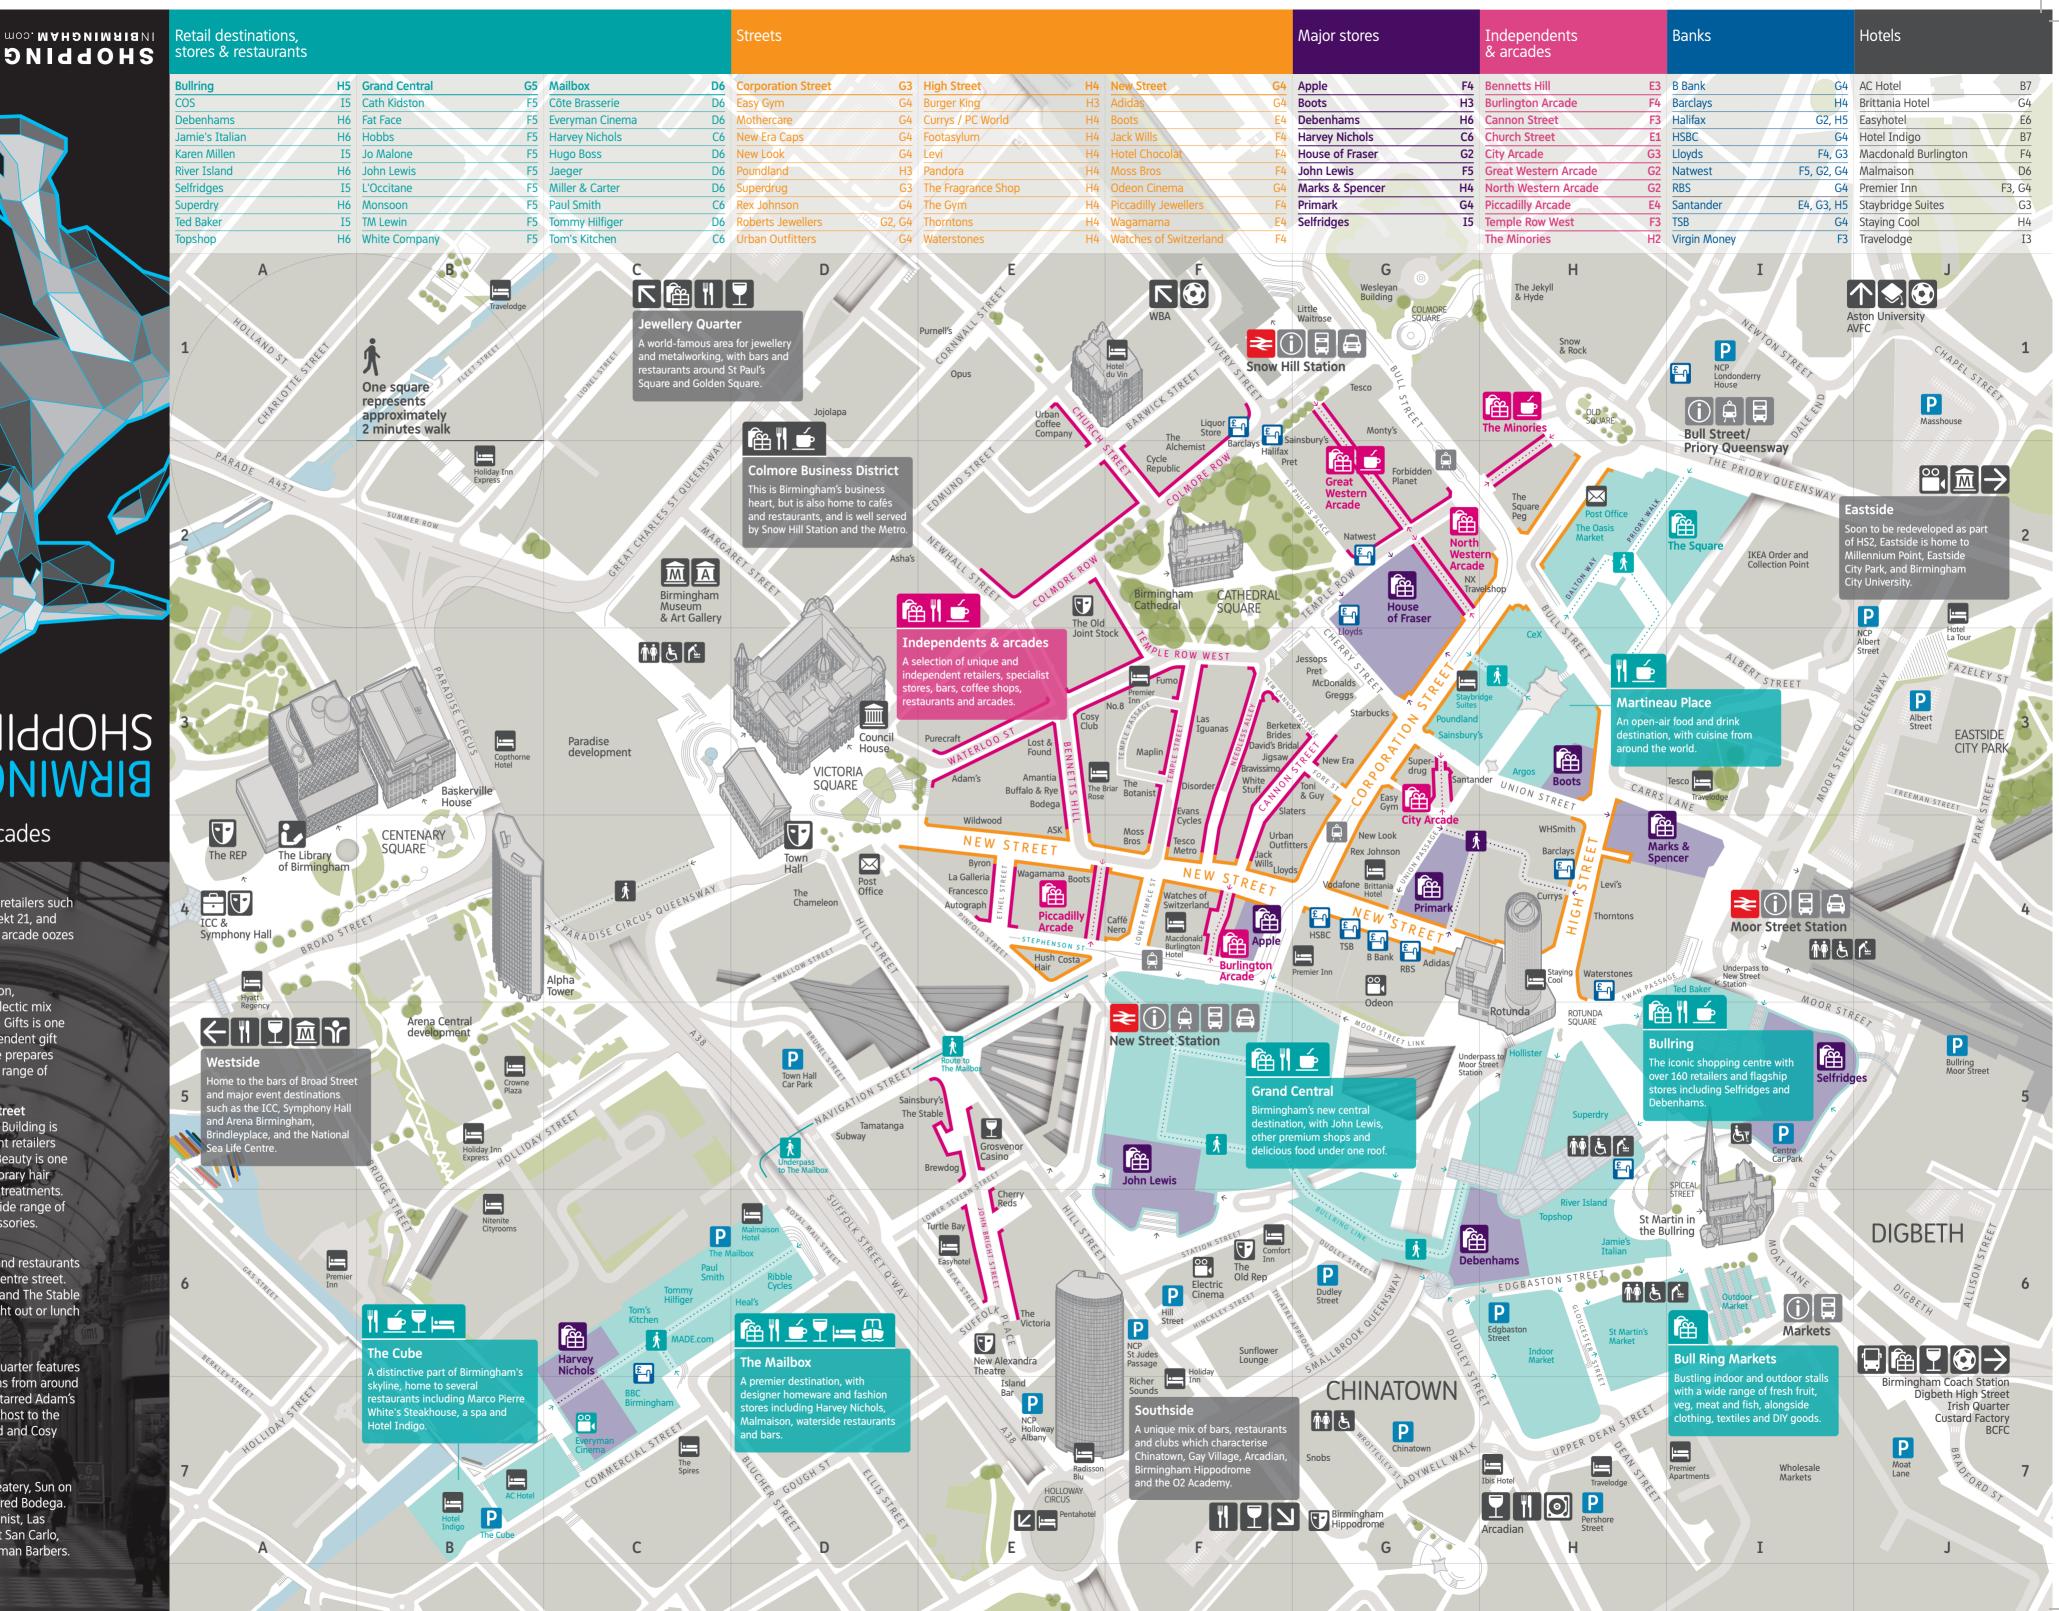

On Pinfold Street, No.50 offers a wide range of lifestyle clothing, shoes, and accessories. John Bright Street

Some of Birmingham's best bars and restaurants can be found on this historic city centre street. Cherry Reds, Turtle Bay, BrewDog, and The Stable are among the highlights for a night out or lunch with friends.

Waterloo Street, Temple Street The city centre's booming dining quarter features menu options and drinks selections from around the world. Home to the Michelin-starred Adam's restaurant, Waterloo Street is also host to the grand interiors of the Lost & Found and Cosy Club restaurants.

Bennetts Hill

Where you can find the Indian Streatery, Sun on the Hill, and South American-inspired Bodega. Temple Street is home to The Botanist, Las Iguanas, and legendary restaurant San Carlo, plus the independent stylist Everyman Barbers.

Welcome to Birmingham

At the heart of a £100 billion regional economy, Birmingham City Centre has undergone massive transformation and regeneration in recent years.

With Grand Central at New Street Station, a relaunched Mailbox with premium retail and leisure facilities, and a stunning Apple store in the historic 128 New Street, retailers and restaurants are playing their part with more flagship stores soon to arrive.

Birmingham is the only city outside London that is home to the big five department stores, with Selfridges, John Lewis, House of Fraser, Harvey Nichols, and Debenhams all within a five-minute walk. Birmingham City Centre is also home to a thriving independent shopping and dining scene, and all this combines to make Birmingham the world-class retail and leisure experience it is today.

Getting around

By Bus

H! by

J by Jasp

Jeff Bank

There are regular buses serving all of the West Midlands departing from Birmingham City Centre. Tickets can be purchased on board (cash only) or from the NX Travelshop on Corporation Street (G2). For local timetables, visit networkwestmidlands.com.

By Car

There are over 20 car parks within five minutes walk of the city centre. For information about opening times and costs, visit parkopedia.co.uk.

By Coach

Birmingham Coach Station is a five-minute walk from Bullring and New Street Station. For more information on coach timetables, visit nationalexpress.com.

By Metro

The Midland Metro line begins at New Street station, runs along Corporation Street to St Chads, and on to the Jewellery Quarter. Tickets can be purchased onboard. For more information, visit nxbus.co.uk/the-metro.

By Train

Birmingham City Centre is well served via New Street, Snow Hill, and Moor Street stations. To plan your journey, visit nationalrail.co.uk. Tickets can be purchased at any station or online.
